

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

6. The word for “rejoice” means “an expression of happiness.” Is your happiness in the Lord expressed in the way you sing on Sundays? Take a moment right now...yes right now...in your Life Group or with your family members and practice saying something or singing something with emphasis. Yes I really mean it. Do it! If you don’t know what to say or sing...try pronouncing the word “emphasis” in various ways. EX. (EM-pha-sis), or (em-PHA-sis), or (em-pha-SIS). Practice raising your eyebrows up and down on each stressed syllable. Have fun laughing together!!!

7. What is one of your all-time favorite worships song? Hymn? Chorus? Modern Hymn? Christmas song?

8. How are we filled with joy and peace? Whose job is it? What is God’s role? What is our role?

9. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you this past Sunday at FCC?

"GREETING TO A STRANGE HYBRID COMMUNITY"
ROMANS 15:7-13
SENIOR PASTOR SHAWN CLARKE

Strange? Hybrid? Community?

Main Idea: WELCOME one another for the glory of God.

If God is going to be glorified at FCC...

...We must SERVE one another (7-9a).

...We must SING together (9b-11).

...We must BELIEVE with each other (12-13).

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

2. When you think of the word community what comes to mind. Can you think on something that illustrates your thoughts?

3. What makes you feel "connected" to FCC?" What makes you feel "disconnected?" Do you feel like there is an "in crowd" and an "out crowd" at FCC? If so...what part can you play in changing that?

4. Do you care more about God being glorified at FCC through the unity of believers here or do you care more about your personal preaching, music or ministry preferences?

5. If there is someone at FCC that you have seen 1 time or a 1000 times and don't know their name...will you, the next time you see them, ask them their name?
