

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. What do the rules, “Context is King,” and, “Let Scripture interpret Scripture” mean when we study our bibles?
3. What is the difference between trials and temptations?
4. Where do the enticements to sin come from? (James 1:14)
5. What does it mean to “fight desires with desires” mean?
6. Paul reminds the Ephesians in 4:22 to “put off deceitful desires,” what deceitful desires whisper their destructive lies to you?
7. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you on Sunday at FCC?

Thank You from Mike & Monica

Monica and I want to thank you for the incredibly thoughtful time together last Sunday. We were so honored, blessed and grateful for the heartfelt videos and your comments as well as the worship time was very meaningful time for us. We are grateful for each of you and thankful for the time we have served in the various capacities we have since 1992. Thank you for the kind thoughts, your beautiful cards and the thoughtful gift and love offering. We will always love those who have ever attended FCC!

Trials, Tests and Temptations, oh my! (James 1:12-14)

Two major rules for studying the bible are:

- Context is King:
- Let Scripture interpret Scripture:

Trials, Tests and Temptations...oh my. (1:2-3, 12-13)

Where does temptation come from? (1:14)
