

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. Why did Paul leave Titus in Crete? How did Crete's reputation and geography factor into Titus's mission to appoint elders and bring order to the local churches?
3. Read Titus 1:6-9. Elder or not, these are qualifications that we should all strive for in our Christian lives. How is our cultural context at odds with the picture of godliness given in this passage? What might be some similarities between the Cretan culture and ours? How then does ministry thrive in a cultural context like this?
4. Paul insisted that elders have the ability to encourage others through sound doctrine and refute those without sound doctrine. Is that important for just elders or is it something all Christians should do? Is this something that you can do? If not, what are some practical ways you can learn to do this?
5. Read Titus 2:2-8. Why do you think that God tells us that we should have these relationships with people in different seasons of life than us? Can you think of a relationship with someone (older or younger) that you are currently pouring your self into? What about a relationship that you're being poured into?
6. Discipleship in the local church is super important; how can we be intentional about cultivating these types of relationships with other believers in our church?
7. Read Titus 2:11-15. Why was it so important for Titus and the church at Crete to live these things out in their community? What impact would it have had on the people? How might that impact our community if our local church were to live in these ways?
8. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you on Sunday at FCC?
