

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. James 4:17 - "So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin." This verse highlights "sins of omission." James says, there are things that we know we ought to do, they have been made clear to us, but if we omit them and exclude them from our lives, we will have missed the mark that God has set for us. What sins of omission were revealed to you this past weekend?
3. What is one specific and measurable action you can introduce into your relationship with your spouse, children, parents, church members, friendships and neighbors that will help you "do" what God is calling you to "do", and that will glorify Him in those relationships?
4. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you on Sunday at FCC?

God is not an accessory to your plans James 4:13-17

13 - Now listen...and a daydreamingly vague plan...

14 – What is your life?

15 – “if the Lord wills...”

16 – All such boasting is evil.

17 – “So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.”

God is not an accessory to your plans.
