

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. When you are presented with the painted portrait of John Mark in the Scriptures, do you see yourself at all?
3. Are you willing to utilize your means (money, house, intellect, social and relational skills) for Kingdom purposes?
4. Have you grown up in a Christian environment, but never really been transformed by Jesus Christ Himself?
5. Have you ever held an opinion on a “gray matter” of ministry that caused you to pull away from your brothers and sisters in Christ? Have you ever been tempted to separate or actually separated over a non-essential issue? What makes something essential or non-essential?
6. Have you, in the later part of your life, become more seasoned and made ready for ministry in the Kingdom? If so, how so and what should be your first next step to be involved?
7. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you this past Sunday at FCC?
