

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. Jesus obeyed even when He didn't "feel" like it. How is obedience easy and difficult at the same time?
3. What was the remedy for the anxiety Jesus was facing? (v. 36)
4. Jesus invited three of His closest friends to be with Him in His anguish. Do you have a friend or two that you could invite into your moments of temptation and struggles? If so, how do you involve them?
5. Judas became "the betrayer." That had become his identity. He became what he consumed. What does that tell us about our fallen human natures?
6. Will you rise and run to Jesus, or will you run away from Him in shame?
7. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you on Sunday at FCC?

Mark 14:32-52

Obedience is hard, but it is worth it.

- In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him... (Heb. 5:7-9)
