

LIFE GROUP/PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What impacted you most from your overall experience with FCC on Sunday?
2. Naomi was bitter and, in a funk, but she focuses 1) on God's laws, and 2) on other people. In doing so she started the dominos falling in the direction of redemption. Are you experiencing any bitterness and despair? What specific passages of God's Word can you focus on that may prove to bring deliverance? Who is your life can you focus your love and attention on to shift the focus away from yourself?
3. Ruth had the reputation for being a "worthy woman" and Boaz proved to be a man of "purity." What would need to change in your life to be known as a "worthy woman" or a "man of purity?"
4. Ruth approached Boaz to be her redeemer with respect, reverent fear and humility. Is that the way you relate with your Redeemer?
5. How does the book of Ruth prepare us to understand the work of Jesus?
6. How did the Holy Spirit prompt you on Sunday at FCC?

Ruth 3

The Pursuit of Redemption

Honoring and Obeying God's Word

- Leader: This is God's Word...
- Congregation: it is to be believed in all that it teaches, obeyed in all it requires and trusted in all it promises.
- All: Thanks be to God.

Jesus has already done all the work to secure our redemption; we need only to humbly ask Him to receive it.

Naomi's plan for redemption involved a marriage. (1-5)

- She focused on God's Word (Deut. 25:5)
- She focused on other people. (Ruth 3:1)

Ruth's pursuit of redemption involved a humble request. (6-9)

- Ezekiel 16:8

Boaz promises to provide redemption while proving to be a man of purity. (10-18)
