Week 9: Philippians 4:1–9

READ the passage together. Philippians 4:1-9

PONDER: In 4:1, Paul repeatedly expresses his affection for the Philippians and then he commands them to do what? _____

1. Where are you most tempted to become distracted, discouraged, or spiritually passive right now?
2. Why do you think Paul focuses on helping these two ladies in conflict to “agree in the Lord” rather than determining who was right and who was wrong?
3. It was suggested that “the issue is rarely the issue.” How have you seen heart motives contribute to conflict in your own life?
4. Our names are written in the Book of Life (Phil.4:3). How does that eternal reality change the way we view present struggles?
5. When anxiety comes, what are you most likely to do first?
6. What is one unhealthy thought pattern you need to replace with biblical truth?

PRAY. Spend time praying for peace in strained relationships, freedom from anxiety, greater joy in Christ, renewed minds that dwell on what is true and praiseworthy and courage to practice what God has revealed in His Word.

ACT. Is there a relationship in your life that currently needs reconciliation, forgiveness, or a peacemaking conversation? When do you plan on initiating that conversation?

This Stuff Works

Put this stuff into practice. It works.

Stand Firm! The people around us are rooting for us. (1)

Our interactions must be governed by our allegiance to Christ. (2-3)

* Luke 1:79

We are to rejoice in the Gospel and all its joyful implications. (4-7)

* "I have learned to kiss the wave that throws me against the Rock of Ages." - Spurgeon

* John 16:22

What we mull over matters. (8-9)

* Rom. 12:2; Is. 26:3
