

Week 1: Psalm 12

READ the passage together.

PONDER. The Psalms are a beautiful part of Scripture. They showcase the authentic cry of the heart when we are frightened, frustrated, and even furious. We can always bring our full range of emotions before our God. How does David begin Psalm 12? _____

1. How does David's plea for help reflect our own cries for divine intervention in today's hurried, frustrating, upsetting world?
2. How does David differentiate between human words and God's words in this Psalm?
3. In a world filled with deceit and false flattery, how can we continue to trust in the promise of God's protection?
4. What was the most impactful moment for you at FCC this week? (Did you meet someone new? Feel the Spirit prompting in a new way? Or gain a new insight?)

PRAY. Psalms are also Prayers. In each one the Psalmist brings their plea to God. Take some time bringing your own pleas before the Lord.

ACT. What specific actions can you take in your daily life to resist the temptation of deceit and flattery?
