

We Aspire: Week 1

READ the passage together. Philippians 2:12-17

PONDER . Do you have any family recipes that have been passed down from a previous generation?

1. Take a moment to read out loud the “membership aspirations.” After reading them, share your thoughts on one that jumped off the page at you.
2. Why do you think relational conflict can reveal what is really going on in our hearts and how is God currently putting “heat” on me through relationships or circumstances within His church?
3. What would it look like to “hold fast to the word of life” more tenaciously than we hold onto our personal preferences that tempt us to grumble and dispute? (Phil. 2:13-17)
4. According to Jesus, what will demonstrate to the world that we belong to Him? (John 13:34-35)

PRAY . Utilize the online church directory and pray the text of Ephesians 3:14-21 for a handful of people that gather here.

ACT . If our highest aspiration is for God to be glorified within this community, what is one thing you personally need to start doing, stop doing, or continue doing?

Our Highest Aspiration: God's Glory

A bowl full of ingredients isn't much. (1 Cor. 8:1; 14:1)

Aspiration Preamble: Having been brought to repentance and belief in the Lord Jesus Christ by God's grace, we now, depending upon the Holy Spirit, renew our commitment to one another. (Phil. 2:12-17; John 13:34-35; Matt. 16:18; Eph. 3:10-11)

Q. What is an aspiration?

A. ...a strong desire to become something, accomplish something, or reach a particular goal.

Our highest aspiration is to see God glorified within the context of this community. (1 Cor. 10:31; Rom. 11:36; Eph. 3:20-21)
