

Week 6: Hebrews 10:24-25

READ: the passages together

PONDER: The church from the early days has stood as a countercultural gathering of beautiful and broken people who confess Jesus as Lord and Savior. We are both a living and a dying witness. A movement based on the Gospel to be a light to the world. A unity of diversity. A gathering of “called-out-ones” to minister to each other.

1) What Major Truths does Hebrews 10:24-25 lay down for us?

“Let us _____”. “Let us not _____” “Let us _____”

2) Read Ephesians 3:10. What spiritual reason does Paul give for the Church operating? What practical reason does he add in Ephesians 4:12? What other reasons can you think of?

3) What things or activities distract you from these goals? Why do you find these points difficult to do or be consistent in? (Be as honest as you can. We all struggle with them.)

4) In a world filled with other a million things vying for our attention and affection, how can keep pursuing the things God wants us to pursue and be committed to?

5) Ephesians 5:27 tells us that God’s intent is to see a _____ kind of Church. (Also see Matt 5:13-16) How can we become such a church here? What can you do to help that happen?.

PRAY: Take time to pray for our church, that we would become what the scriptures tell us to become. That each of us would pull together.

ACT: The Church is always a body of people, giftings, and acts of love and service. Find one small way this week to bless our body.
